From the President

I would personally like to thank all those who helped organise this year's conference especially the conference committee who gave their valuable time to make this conference a success.

Dear Delegate,

I'm hoping that you will join me at our Annual Conference for 2015. This year we are all about safety hence the theme of our Conference "Safety is no Accident". As most of you will know I am fiercely passionate about safety and so I am suitably proud with the line-up we have for you this year.

We start off with Alan Pincott from VicRoads presenting the VicRoads Rollover Program on Friday. This 2 hour session has been developed by VicRoads and explains in simple terms how rollovers occur and what can be done to prevent them.

Last year's mini sessions on the Friday were so successful we are holding them again this year, we have even extended them. These short 20 - 25 minute sessions will predominantly focus on technology, something that we all need to at least try to keep up with. We have also arranged for someone to come in and update you on SuperStream and how to make sure you are claiming the maximum amount of the fuel rebate. I think anyone will find the information in one or some of these sessions useful. Remember the ideas of these sessions are they are for people who want to be there – so you can choose which ones suit you best.

On Saturday we are launching, or reviewing recently launched, initiatives that all add to our Safety. From the Industry Guidelines for Ramps and Forcing Yards to the AFM template to the new Livestock Assist program you will be impressed with what we have achieved over the last 12 months.

We are also running a Partners' Program this year on the Saturday. Partners are able to join Heather Keenan for a morning at the Bendigo Art Gallery, or Bendigo Pottery, before enjoying a lunch at Lake Weerona. They will then return to the conference in time for the Men's Health session.

Our Annual General Meeting is also on Saturday and I encourage all members to attend and have a say. This is the best forum to make sure the Association stays on the right course.

All of this leads up to our Gala Dinner and Auction on Saturday night. Please come prepared to enjoy our comedian Paul Martell and bid on the auction. This auction provides funds for the Association to keep fighting for you.

Finally, I would like to personally thank all of those who have helped organise this year's conference. Especially the conference committee who have given their valuable time to make this conference a success.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Melisa or Bec on 0400 933 713

I look forward to catching up with you at our Conference and hope to see you there.

Rollover Program 2015

- presented by Alan Pincott, VicRoads

The program takes the audience through an interactive presentation about the physics of a rollover. Explained in very simple terms, the complex nature of a rollover has a number of key components. Illustrated with diagrams, truck models and interaction with the audience, the messages on how a rollover occurs are made clear. Static roll-over threshold is also explained. This also gets the attention of the trailer purchasing section of each company who better understand the type of trailer required for their operations. The presentation also educates participants on new technologies such as electronic stability control (ESC) and advanced braking systems, and their role in reducing roll-overs, and importantly how to drive a vehicle equipped with this technology. It is made clear that a truck fitted with ESC is not immune to a rollover nor does not abdicate the driver's responsibility to know how to drive the vehicle.

The Rollover program also provides insight into trip planning, so that high risk locations along a route are identified. This is an exciting part of the Rollover program which ties together the information of the presentation for practical application.

All participants receive a VicRoads Certificate of participation on completion.
